UNIVERSITI TEKNOLOGI MALAYSIA

APSEC 2018 is an international conference focusing on topics related to structural engineering and construction. The 1st APSEC conference was held in 1989 in the historical city of Malacca. Since then the conference was held regularly at every three years and had attracted many researchers, academicians and engineers from local and abroad. The previous 9th APSEC-ACEC 2015 was jointly organized with AUN/SEED-Net and was held at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur. APSEC 2015 is organized to provide platform for exchanging ideas on latest advances in research and innovations, as well as state-of-the-art information in the fields of structural engineering and construction between scientists and engineers from both the academia and industries.

The Organizing Committee invites you to present paper(s) and/or participate in the Technical Session of the Conference. The success and achievement gained in the previous APSEC conferences have been remarkable and we are confident that this APSEC 2018 will bring significant benefits to the participants. Your support and participation will be much appreciated.

Please bring along your colleagues and friends to join us. Visits to scenic, cultural and interesting places in Langkawi, Malaysia during the week of the conference will also be organized.
