

PLAY BY NUMBERS

A hopscotch court surrounded by herbs creates a fragrant corner of fun for children in the early summer garden

A S SUMMER BECKONS, children are often looking for things to do outdoors in the sunshine. The traditional game of hopscotch provides hours of enjoyment, and a court can be assembled easily, requiring few materials.

Interspersed with sweet-smelling herbs, this outdoor court makes an attractive feature in the summer garden when not being played on.

