

- local government management of public space in England: aspirations for public space 101–3; case study conclusions 115–18; challenges facing local authorities 108–15, 116; community involvement 105–6; lack of integrated strategies 91; local authority initiatives 92–4; local authority public space documents 94–5; local authority strategies 90–2, 206; local authority structures 89–90; local government in England 83–5; national agenda 99–101; private sector involvement 106–8; public space/management context 85–8; public space management structures and coordination 103–4; redefining roles and responsibilities 116–18; research conclusions 97–8, 115–18; research methodology 88–9; stakeholder involvement 104–8; stakeholder views 95–7
- local planning stakeholders 20–1
- local strategic partnerships (LSPs) 20, 85, 105
- Lofland, L. 46
- loitering/sitting space 163, 171–3, 188, 190–1, 192
- London Borough of Bexley 94
- London Borough of Camden 94
- London Borough of Greenwich 93, 95, 105; anti-graffiti initiatives 106, 107 (Box); investment 109
- London Borough of Haringey 94
- London Borough of Kensington and Chelsea 94, 103; investment 109
- London Borough of Richmond 94
- London Borough of Southwark 95, 109, 111; Community Forums 105
- London Borough of Waltham Forest 92, 94, 95, 104; Street Watchers 111 (Box)
- London Borough of Wandsworth 94
- London space types: civic space, for display and gathering 30–3; the market 26–8; the park square 29–30; the residential square 28–9
- loose space 61
- lost space 44
- Loukaitou-Sideris, A. 46, 57; and Banerjee, T. 33, 34, 35, 44, 49, 50–1, 56, 58, 160
- Low, S. and Smith, N. 49–50, 51, 52
- Lynch, K. 13, 15, 165; and Carr, S. 56
- Mace, R. 30
- McNeill, D. 163
- Madanipour, A. 38, 50, 57
- maintenance 66–7, 96; community-centred model 79; delivery 145–7; an indicative maintenance web 202; as a local authority challenge 112–13; market-centred model 76; open space management and 120, 145–9, 156–7; responsiveness 147–9; state-centred model 73–4
- Malmö, Sweden 122, 123, 125, 128, 130, 131; anti-social behaviour 141; coordination of open space management activities 136–7, 139, 154; Green Plan 148; open space maintenance 147, 148, 156; open space management investment 151, 153, 154, 157; open space regulation 141, 143, 155, 156
- Malone, K. 47, 61
- management of iconic civic space: business improvement districts and 179–80, 182–3; Leicester Square, London 181–92; Piccadilly Circus 180–1, 183–92; research methodology 160; Times Square, New York 160–75
- management of open space: analytic framework 119–21; context 119–20; contextual needs in urban open space 125; coordination 120, 135–40, 154–5; investment 120–1, 149–54, 157–8; maintenance 120, 145–9, 156–7; open space ownership 123; open space plans 126–8; open space typologies 122–3; policy context 125–8; political will 102 (Box), 128, 206; priorities 120–1; regulation 120, 140–5, 155–6; research conclusions 131–3; research methodology 121–2; stakeholder involvement 128–31, 135–7
- management of public space: ‘Broken Windows Theory’ 44; change from government to governance 69–70, 203–4; changing contexts of 70–1, 203; compensation culture and 57; conflict management 11, 70–1; context for action 16–17; coordination of interventions see coordination; and critiques of contemporary urban public space 43–58, 200–3; design-led approach 8–9; devolved responsibility 74–9, 105, 106, 111, 132, 140–1, 208; drivers of 69–71; efficiency 73, 120, 138, 147, 149, 208; by English local government see local government management of public space in England; global context 71, 205–9; green space see management of open space; iconic civic space see management of iconic civic space; interlinking of different policies and objectives 8; investment see investment; lessons from an international stage 206–9; lessons from history 200; local judgment and 56; London space types 26–33, 41; maintenance routines see maintenance; management on the ground 204–5; matrix of contributions 198, 199–200; models 71–9, 208; nature and evolution of 65–71; New York space types 33–7, 41; open space see management of open space; partnerships between private and public interests 10–11, 19–22; power redistribution 70; public space character and see public space character; quality focus 207, 211–14; regulation see regulation; research conclusions 209; resources 67, 96, 109, 207; responsibilities for action 17–22; security see security; silo mentality 68–9; theory and practice 199–209; UK: recent history 68
- Manhattan gridiron 34