

Regular, geometric pattern (of streets)	Lerner-Lam et al. (1992: 19)
Robust street pattern	Ross (1997: 23)
Straightforward street pattern	Ross (1997: 23)
Well connected patterns	Lerner-Lam et al. (1992: 17)
Well connected layouts	DTLR and CABE (2001: 25)

APPENDIX 3 CATALOGUE OF STREET CLASSIFICATION SYSTEMS

A3.1 Catalogue of street typologies/road hierarchies

Roman planning (Dickinson, 1961) Cardo Decumanus (Hill, 1996) Colonnade street	V5 – Local spines V6 – To buildings V7 – Pedestrians	Other types: By-pass roads Radial roads Ring roads Shopping streets and arcades Local roads Boulevards and parkways Sub-surface and elevated The single-purpose road
Act for the Rebuilding of the City of London (1667) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> High and principal streets (40 ft wide) Streets and lanes of note (35 ft wide) By-lanes (14 ft wide) Narrower alleys (9 ft wide) 	Tripp's Classifications (1950), (1942: 41) General Arterial roads Sub-arterial roads Local or minor roads Subdivision of local roads Town: Shopping Business industrial Amusement Residential Country: Village streets Country lanes Other or special types 1. Major shopping or business streets 2. By-pass roads 3. Ring roads 4. Parkways 5. Road tunnels 6. Roads above railways	A hierarchy of street types (Tunnard and Pushkarev, 1963) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Local Collector Arterial Four levels of facility of the circulation network: Freeway Arterial street Collector street Land service street
Edinburgh New Town (‘Craig Plan’) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Squares Major streets Transverse streets Minor streets Mews 	Ebenezer Howard (1904) Boulevards Avenues Streets	Traffic in Towns, UK (MoT, 1963: 44) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Primary distributor District distributor Local distributor Access road
Le Corbusier's 7V (Spreiregen, 1965: 171) V1 – Cross country V2 – Branch to city V3 – Sector dividers V4 – Sector connectors	Suggested nomenclature (Min. of War Transport, 1946) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Arterial roads Through roads Local through roads Local roads Development roads 	Traffic in Towns, Glossary (MoT, 1963) Access road