

Index

Page numbers in italic refer to illustrations.

- accessibility to the waterfront 45
- activities in redeveloped zones 43–4
- administrative structures, and heritage conservation 171
- American Institute of Architects 76
- Amsterdam 7, 12, 81, 138–40, 143–9, 156–8, 171, 175, 177
 - boats 157
 - canals 148
 - car parking 147
 - Central Station 138, 139, 147, 148
 - and CIAM functional town planning 140
 - conservation planning in 169
 - Declaration of 170
 - Eastern Dockland 144
 - Eastern Ports 49
 - Great Expansion Plan 140
 - growth of 139–40
 - housing 145
 - IJ River 12, 118, 138, 139, 143, 144, 149
 - AWF and “Anchors of the IJ” 145–7
 - IJ-burg 145
 - IJ-Oevers project 6
 - industries 138
 - inner city 139, 148
 - land-lease system 145
 - map of waterfront 139
 - new Metropolis Museum 144, 147, 156
 - and the North Sea Canal 143
 - Oosterdok island 148
 - Public Space Plan 147, 149
 - Schipol Airport 139
 - transportation links and infrastructure 138–9
 - typical fabric of central 146
 - as a UNESCO World Heritage City 138, 170
 - Westerdok island 148
 - Western Dockland 144
- Athens 100
- AWF (Amsterdam Waterfront Finance Company) 145–6, 156
- Baltimore 12, 42, 48, 81, 162
 - before the harbor redevelopment 74
 - industrial and urban decline 75
 - Inner Harbor Redevelopment 5, 6, 10, 74–6, 161, 163
 - 1967 Plan 79
 - 1975 Plan 78
 - “delivery system” 83
 - first version 77
 - and leisure 80
 - public/private sector partnership 83–4
 - and Sydney 30
 - tourism industry 75
- Barcelona 41, 43, 49, 164
 - and Genoa 100
 - Olympic Village 43
 - Port Vell 42
 - waterfront planning 168
- Basque Country
 - connecting the Atlantic and Mediterranean arcs 87, 87
 - Directrices de Ordenación Territorial (DOT) 86, 93–4
 - and Metropolitan Bilbao 91, 94
 - regional vision of the 86–90
 - see also Bilbao
- Baudelaire, C. 4