

A cascade is integrated into the terraced steps. The cascade has an artistic water design which sets the tone for the transition between the urban realm and the natural habitat of the river Volme.

A water wall of glass, water and light within the foyer of the Town Hall extends over two storeys. Particularly at night, the water wall is a distinct symbol visible from the city through the glass façade of the building.