

Upper: Clearly identifiable nodes at the adjacent street ends assist with user legibility and interface with the beach.
Lower left: The area affords a significant vista to the beach, as well as being available for public events and celebrations
Lower right: Beachfront showers have been placed in strategic locations so the experience of showering is part of the animation: on a platform with a view of the beach

