

Left: A key principal of the design was accessibility for all, with extensive ramps for variety of access
 Upper right: Super-graphic imagery of historical surfers paradise photos on shade structures and public amenities have been used to animate the structures and provide a lively sense of cultural heritage for this iconic place
 Lower right: A key emphasis of the design is about a clear interface with the beach and the provision of facilities for the enjoyment of all

