

Upper left: Creative interpretive and wayfinding signage is a key design element of the parkland
 Lower left: Elevated boardwalks provide greater site wide usage and views of surrounding landscapes
 Upper right: Filtered river water feeds the waterfall as a sustainable element of the parklands design
 Lower right: Shade structure provide rest and gathering areas of a more intimate scale within the parkland

