

Upper left: Entry signage for parkland was designed to activate creative play and investigation throughout the park
 Lower left: Strong creative design has led to many successful outcomes for structures throughout the parkland
 Upper right: Local artist were engaged to install site specific artworks throughout the parkland
 Lower right: A strong focus of the design was to bring people closer to the waters of the Bremer River

