

Water detail – touch

Water cools on touch. Assume that people will want to touch with hands and bare feet or bathe. Allow for wading against the drag of rushing water or being drenched by fountains. Rain on the face need not be unpleasant. Allow for dangling feet, sliding on slippery green stones and drying feet in sun on rocks.