

- inclusionary zoning, 213–14, 224
- income gap, 162, 179, 267
- Incomplete Cities* (Hirayama), 88–89
- incompleteness, project, 295
- Independence National Historical Park (Philadelphia), 61
- industrial buildings: reuse of, 299, 300
- inequity: measures to reduce, 81
- infill development, 224; in downtown Los Angeles, 246–47; shift to peripheral sites from downtown, 316
- informal cities of global South, 191–94; Caracas, Venezuela, 191–93; Mumbai, India, 193–94
- infrastructure: of city, 124–25; of process, development of, 247, 248; rise of citizen expert and, 243–44
- infrastructure plan, 221, 226n9
- inner city: countervailing trends of deindustrialization-reindustrialization and decentralization-recentralization of, 265–67
- inside and outside spaces: adjudication between, 84
- Institute of Architecture and Urbanism in New York, 210
- intellectual capital of urban design: thinness of, 6–7
- interdisciplinarity, 230–31, 236n2; strategies for opening up interdisciplinary dialog, 282
- interlocutor between design disciplines and planning: urban design's historic role of, 232–33
- internal urban areas, 277, 278
- internationalism, 29–30
- Internet: public access to, 273
- Iraq War, 269
- Isaacs, Reginald, 26, 64
- Isard, Walter, 66, 70, 86n18
- Ishikawa, Sara, xviii2
- Italian CIAM: “AR” plan for Milan of 1946, 36n35
- Italian Modernism, 26
- Italian piazza, 126
- Italy: internal urban areas of, 277, 278; Stalker architects' group in, 190, 194. See also Rome, Italy
- Izenour, Steven, 86n26
- Jackson, John Brinkerhoff, 66
- Jackson, Kenneth, 289
- Jacobs, Jane, xviii5, 11, 45, 69, 108, 113, 139, 158, 170, 179, 206, 218, 223, 304; conflation of neighborhood form and human ecology, 159; critique of planning and urban renewal, 102; dedication to and love of cities, 182; at First Urban Design Conference (1956), 9–11, 89, 100, 128, 157, 256; Koolhaas's denunciation of, 180–81; major philosophy, 63–64; similarity of roundtable (2006) discussions to ideas of, 297
- Japan: Atelier Bow-Wow in, 190; failure to develop urban infrastructure of housing, 94; little disparity between rich and poor in, 94; modernization of, 275; partial breakdown of balanced territorialized communities in cities of, 95. See also Tokyo, Japan
- Jeanneret, P., 33n12
- Jerde, Jon, 318
- jobs: geographical distribution of, 265, 267