

- Siza, Alvaro, 132
- skewed developments: excessive concentration of capital and, 93
- Skidmore, Owings and Merrill, 49, 51
- slums: of Caracas, Urban Think Tank approach to, 191–93; Modernist urbanism addressing problems of, 179–80
- smart growth, 123
- Smith, Patrick, 284n10
- Smithson, Alison and Peter, 15, 16, 26, 31, 35n26, 35n28, 37n46; interest in “active socioplastics,” 72; Team 10 challenge to CIAM and, 24, 25, 30
- social condenser: Russian Constructivist notion of, 147
- social engineering, 222; weakening of beliefs in possibility of, 272
- social interaction: urban design to support, 107–8
- social sciences-based planning program, 69
- social unrest of 1960s and 1970s, 256, 272–73
- social values: current default for U.S.-style urban design identified with specific, 174
- Society Hill, Philadelphia, 50
- software: digital, 249
- Soja, Edward W., xv–xvi, 127, 201; on city as multiscalar, with distinctive and changing geographies, 259; on designing the postmetropolis, 255–69; encountering urban design, personal view of, 257–61; metropolitan transformations and the actual new urbanism, 261–67
- Sola-Morales, Ignasi de, 32n1
- Solemita, Vincent, 37n43
- Soleri, Paolo, 166
- Soltan, Jerzy, 12, 29, 37n46, 51–53
- Sommer, Richard, xiv, 135–52, 201; on assumptions made by urban designers, 136–37; on new city without patron, 149–50; review of urban design’s most cherished methods, 138–43; on three development phases of urban design, 143–49
- Soria y Mata, Arturo, 166
- Sorkin, Michael, xiv, 155–82, 201, 308, 322; on alternative communities, 171–73; on class in public space, 300; on Disneyland, 169–70; on First Urban Design Conference (1956), 155–57; on future of urban design, 181–82; on “lifestyle” streets, 317; on New Urbanism, 174–81; on New York City, 158–64; on pivotal year of 1961, 158–60; roundtable discussion of, 317–19; on suburbia, 164–66; Talen on, 183–84
- South Street, Philadelphia, 74
- Southwest: urbanism of, 73
- Southwest Washington plan (I. M. Pei), 11
- Soviet Union: breakup of, 92, 273
- “Space and the Elements of Renaissance City” (Giedion), 25
- spaces of competition, 91
- Space, Time and Architecture* (Giedion), 21
- spatial analytics, 104–5
- spatial disciplines: interaction among, 261
- spatial imagination, 23–24
- spatial mismatches, 265, 267
- Spaulding & Slye Colliers International, 217
- special districts: New York City, 161–62