

Upper left: The backless bench acts as an elegant barrier to the water while also providing seating for users of the space
 Lower left: The four WaveDecks explore variations of a simple articulation in the change in level between Queens Quay Boulevard and Lake Ontario
 Upper right: In-water LED lights have been installed to create a surreal experience by night
 Lower right: A curving 57-metre-long bench along the edge highlights the experience at Spadina

