

Contents

■	Acknowledgements	2
■	Foreword by Kishore Rao, Director, UNESCO World Heritage Centre	3
■	Foreword by Stefano De Caro, Director-General, ICCROM	4
1	Introduction	7
	1.1 Introduction to the Resource Manual
	1.2 Essential guidance
2	Context: managing cultural heritage	12
	2.1 What is heritage? Why manage it?
	2.2 Placing heritage concerns in a broader framework
	2.3 Heritage conservation and sustainable development
	2.4 The need for heritage to be managed
	2.5 Approaches to heritage conservation and management
3	Understanding management in the World Heritage context	29
	3.1 What is World Heritage, the World Heritage system and its requirements ?
	3.2 The 1972 World Heritage Convention: why and how to manage properties and the need to comply
	3.3 The Operational Guidelines : managing in order to protect Outstanding Universal Value
	3.4 Outstanding Universal Value, authenticity and integrity in the context of World Heritage property management
	3.5 World Heritage documentation and procedures to reinforce management
	3.6 Strategic guidance adopted by the World Heritage Committee
	3.7 Evolving knowledge and policies
	3.8 The World Heritage Capacity Building Strategy
4	Defining, assessing and improving heritage management systems	53
	4.1 Heritage management systems in general and in World Heritage
	4.2 The three elements of a heritage management system
	4.3 The three processes of a heritage management system
	4.4 The three results of a heritage management system
	4.5 Documenting and assessing a heritage management system
	Appendix A	122
	A framework for developing, implementing and monitoring a management plan
	A.1 Introduction: management plans within management systems
	A.2 The management planning process
	A.3 Contents of the management plan
	Appendix B	146
	Enhancing our Heritage Toolkit (IUCN)
	Bibliography	148
	Contact information	152