

REVIEWER CHECKLIST-MAKE SURE YOUR ARTICLE COVERS THESE

TITLE

The title is relevant, precise, and reflects the overall contents of the study

ABSTRACT

The abstract is clear and precise, consist of:

1. Re-establish the topic of the research.
2. Give the research problem and/or main objective of the research (this usually comes first).
3. Indicate the methodology used.
4. Present the main findings.
5. Present the main conclusions

KEYWORDS

Keywords are relevant and appropriate, consist of 5 keywords

INTRODUCTION

The introduction section has a clear statement demonstrating that the focus of the study. The problem definition is stated clearly. There is a brief, well-articulated summary of research literature that substantiates the study.

RESEARCH OBJECTIVE

The purposes, research question(s), and/or hypotheses appropriate to the topic and area of the study are related clearly

The paper introduction shows:

1. The importance of research
2. The benefit of research
3. People who will get the benefit of the research
4. Method/model need to be improved
5. The gap that will be filled by this research

LITERATURE REVIEW

The paper mentions the literature review/related works.

1. Show appropriate preparation and knowledge through the background/review of literature in the related works.
2. The paper shows how it relates to the other work.

GAP

Comparison/contrast of different viewpoints/different research outcomes is made

METHODOLOGY

DESIGN

Clearly explain the research design, sampling procedure and instrument development

DATA COLLECTION

The data was collected helps the reader to evaluate the validity and reliability of the results, and the conclusions draw from them.

DATA ANALYSIS

The paper has explanation of how data was collected/generated, explanation of how data was analyzed explanation of methodological problems and their solutions or effects

RESULTS/FINDINGS

Results are presented clearly and analyzed appropriately. Results may cover:

1. Statement of results: the results are presented in a format that is accessible to the reader.
2. Tables and figures should be accompanied by text that guides the reader's attention to significant results.

DISCUSSION

Discussion are presented clearly and analyzed appropriately. Discussion may cover:

1. Explanation of results
2. References to previous research
3. Deduction: a claim for how the results can be applied more generally
4. Hypothesis: a more general claim or possible conclusion arising from the results

CONCLUSION

The conclusions adequately give a summary of:

1. What was learned
2. What remains to be learned (directions for future research)
3. The shortcomings of what was done (evaluation)
4. The benefits, advantages, applications of the research (evaluation), and recommendations.

GRAMMAR

The paper clearly presents its case and is written with correct grammar, punctuation, spelling and sentence structure

REFERENCES

1. References are up to date, showing the latest researches with minimum 20 works.
2. The paper cites at least one of THAT JOURNAL papers.
